Jamaica, August 8.

THE Shoreham Man of War arrived here on the 5th Inſtant, and brought to Mr. Trelawny our Governour his Majeſty's Orders of the 15th of June laſt, for granting Letters of General Marque and Repriſals againſt the Spaniards; of which his Excellency immediately gave publick Notice, and is uſing all Diligence to put this Iſland into the beſt Poſture of Defence, and in a Readineſs to execute his Majeſty's Orders.

Jamaica, Aug. 13. Commodore Brown having received alſo by the Shoreham his Majeſty's Inſtructions of the ſame Date, is preparing to put to Sea To-morrow with his Majeſty's Ships the Hampton Court, Windſor, Falmouth, Torrington, Diamond, and Shoreham: Deſigning to leave the Sheerneſs and Blandford to convoy the Trade through the Windward Paſſage, and at other Times to cruize for the Security of this Iſland; on the North Side of which the Drake Sloop is to cruiſe, to intercept any ſmall Imbarkations that may be made from St. Jago de Cuba.

Gibraltar, Oct. 25. General Sabine, Governour of this Place, died Yeſterday. Rear-Admiral Haddock is in this Bay with his Majeſty's Ships the Somerſet, Lancaſter, Edinburgh, Ipſwich, Berwick, Plymouth, Grampus Sloop; Salamander Bomb-Veſſel; and the Mercury, Duke, and Ann Galley, Fireſhips. To Day came in Sir Chaloner Ogle in the Auguſta, and the Eltham commanded by the Lord Auguſtus Fitzroy; which latter is ordered to proceed directly to Lisbon, and thence to Spithead. The reſt of the Ships of War commanded by Rear-Admiral Haddock, keep cruizing at the ſeveral Stations appointed them.

Whitehall, November 22.

An Account has been received by a Letter from Mr. Mann, who has the Care of his Majeſty's Affairs at the Court of Florence, dated the 16th Inſtant, N. S. That he having acquainted Mr. Richcourt, the Great Duke's Miniſter, with the Advices that had been received of many Commiſſions being ſent from Spain for fitting out Privateers to cruize upon his Majeſty's Subjects, that Miniſter had ſhew'd him a Letter from the Great Duke, wherein his Highneſs orders him to be particularly careful that none of his Subjects preſume, under the ſevereſt Penalties, to meddle in ſuch Affairs. Mr. Mann further adds, that in Conſequence of the Application which he made to M. Richcourt, at the Time the Spaniſh Miniſter at Florence received thoſe Commiſſions from Spain, M. Richcourt diſpatch'd an Eſtaffette to M. Braitwitz, then at Leghorn, with Orders to declare publickly there the Great Duke's Pleaſure herein; which was accordingly done to ſome Perſons that were ſuppoſed to be provided with Patents from the Spaniſh Conſul, and engaged in fitting out a Privateer, who were told, if they did not immediately deſiſt, they, with their Families, would be baniſh'd, and their Goods confiſcated; which entirely put an End to thoſe Proceedings.

Whitehall, Nov. 22.

Mr. Jackſon, his Majeſty's Conſul at Genoa, having by the King's Order acquainted the Miniſters of that Republick with the Advices that had been received, that Commiſſions had been ſent from Spain to Genoa for fitting out Privateers to cruize upon his Majeſty's Subjects; and having deſired that an Order might be publiſhed, prohibiting the Genoeze Subjects from taking or making Uſe of any Commiſſions of that Nature; the following Order was accordingly printed and publiſhed at Genoa on the 18th Inſtant, N.S.
